“ My name is Kristopher Montgomery. I am a grandson of Nathaniel Charles Cooper Jr., course to be he was Pop Pop. Before I moved away to Germany, a trip to Poppop and Nana was always fun. Pop Pop would usually be watching some sort of television program downstairs and Nana would be upstairs. It was always fun to climb that flight of stairs they had and go back and forth between the two. This summer, I was able to visit him again in person. While im sure it hurt to see me and my two sibilings all grown up, I could tell that he was proud of us and what we were accomplishing. The perivous year (2021), my twin sister had graduated high school, and me this year. Showing him pictures of Kelli (my sister) and I in our graduation uniforms accepting our diplomas, I felt very proud. I know as well that Pop Pop was shocked at how much my youngest sister Rileigh, who had grown so much since he last saw her. and who was about to become a high school senior. Whenever he would call my family in the past years, he often asked about how we were doing not only academically, but as a person. He was a man who cared about his family, his country, and his friends. I love you Pop Pop, rest in peace.

“ When I think about Nathaniel the first thing that I think about is his love for Beatrice! We all went to Bass High! We were not in the same graduating class, but, "Boo" was well known and loved at our school by all who knew him!

My condolences to Beatrice, the kids, and the entire family at the lost of Nathaniel! May the Lord give you all strength and comfort during this sad season! Love & Prayers

“ My name is Angela Gresham. Nathaniel Cooper was my son Jameel Gresham Coach for little league baseball at Midway Park. They were The Pirates and then The Cardinals. When we first started playing at Midway Park, Coach Cooper was in the Armed Service Military. Coach Nathaniel Cooper returned and would coach the boys as if they were in the service. He had that tough love for them. Often he would have them during drills and laps around the field. He was a motivator and mentor for the boys he coached. When my family saw Coach Cooper they called him Boot, his nickname in the neighborhood he grew up in. My family knew him from 4th Ward and Reynoldstown. They knew his Mom, Ms. Mozelle, his Dad Mr. Nathaniel and all of his siblings. I just want to give my sincere condolences and prayers to the family 🙏 When we were at Midway Park Coach Cooper was like a brother. We were Family. He had a lot to offer Midway Park and he gave his all as a Coach, Mentor, Brother and Friend. He was always friendly, outgoing and never met a stranger. He will definitely be missed. With our deepest sympathy, Coach Angela, Jameel, Jeremy and Jamarly Gresham.
