“ I met Tasha in 1994, our Freshman year of college at Clark Atlanta University (Ware Hall / 3rd Floor). Over the years, she has helped me celebrate some of my life's blessings, as well as been there for me as I went through some of life's challenges. I'm going to miss her beautiful smile, her down-to-earth spirit, her one-of-a-kind laugh, and of course her cooking! Tasha was an amazing friend, and she leaves me with memories that I will forever cherish. I pray that my friend rests in God's eternal and heavenly peace.

“ I never met Tasha in person but her kind spirit came through social media. Sharing her travel adventures, amazing cuisine she dined on and the love between her and her husband gave me life! While it is HIS will and we may not understand why, rejoice in the good that Tasha brought to life and those she graced with her beautiful presence. My deepest condolences to Tasha's family and I pray for comfort in the coming days. 🙏❤️
