“ Nelson and I graduated from David T. High School in 1965. I will always remember him as a kind, soft-spoken and supportive person. Our alumni class of 1965 will truly miss his smile and God-fearing spirit. Take your rest my friend. Love and Peace

Rev. Dr. Sue Hampton, Classmate

“ Nelson was a very true and dear friend to my husband, Marvin, and our family. From the time we moved into the neighborhood, he and his wife, Mae, welcomed us with open arms and treated us like family. We have remained friends until the end. He is like a brother and he will truly be missed. Your family is in our prayers for comfort and strength. We love you, Nelson and Mae!

“ Captain Rodgers was a good man, he was a Ole School straight shooter. I was assigned to Battalion 4 and he was the Captain at Station 5. I just saw him at the Round up at Training. He will be truly missed by all who worked and loved him. Good Man. Lt. Jerome Robinson Class of 1987 Retired.
