“ Remembering and missing my baby brother. Oh the levels of silly! We would sometimes grocery shop together and as I’m reaching to take bags out to the car, folks would say, “I’ll hand these bags of groceries to your husband.” No correction from me because Wayne would fire back, “come on Dear.” We’d crack up laughing in the car. Other folks asked if we are twins. Then I had to listen to Wayne tell them how unfortunate he was that we’re related! Such a jokester. I’m missing him.

“ R.I.P. Wayne
The laughter you shared and wonderful sense of humor, will not be forgotten. You shared your culinary gifts and good company, each time we encountered your presence! You will truly be missed!

“ I’ll forever cherish the advice you gave me as I came into manhood and the memories I shared with whenever my Mom and I would come to visit. From Vanderveer in the 80s to memorable backyard BBQs and (slamming grub and FISH) in the 90s, you were part of the package deal that made me love going to visit my little/big cousin, Camille. I’ll forever cherish the mold I saw of you as a stand up man and presence. You were one of the men I looked up to from as far back as I can remember. Rest easy, big fella...much love to you and family from the Ottley/Britton/Silas families.

*With infinite love and respect,
Abram Silas and family*

“ I met Mr. Russell only once but he struck me a fine, straight-up guy and a dog lover like us. He was a great neighbor to my son Andrew and we will miss him. May God bless and keep him.

*I'm going to miss my dear friend, instead of giving me fish he taught me how to fish and wow I would catch a lot. I was on my way to visit him cause I haven't seen him in years, then all of a sudden I haven't heard from him, I told my daughter that's not like Russell to not to respond only to know he wasn't doing well. Sending out my love and prayers to the family, he will be truly missed. Love him forever.
One love Amen.*
