

Neville Randolph Williams

June 27, 2017

On Tuesday morning, June 27, 2017 God called Neville Randolph Williams home. Lee is the 3rd of 12 children, born to James Nathaniel Williams, and Winifred Holford Williams on February 24, 1941.

Lee attended Providence Primary School, and Berbice Educational Institute, where he graduated with 6 subjects in GCE. Neville taught at Scarders' Preparatory School for a short period before migrating to New York City, in 1965. And worked for Dean Witter Reynolds Inc. as a Purchasing Manager. After retiring in 1990, he relocated to Decatur, Georgia.

Lee also worked for Dekalb Medical Center, in the Culinary Department, for 7 years.

Lee, loved life and was always fun to be around. He also love a good laugh. He was a sport buff and his favorite sports were cricket, soccer, basketball, and football.

Lee, is survived by his brothers, Compton, and Don Maurice. Sisters, Gloria, Joan, Dollis, and Pamela Vaun.

And nephews, nieces, and great nieces and many friends.

We may not know, we cannot tell, what pain you had to bear, but one thing we are sure of, God will take care of you.

May your soul Rest In Peace and rise in Glory.
