“ My sister Nicole, You will be missed tremendously. We had so much fun together. You loved me unconditionally. You were my role model, best friend and I will miss you so much. My heart is heavy but I know that God gotcha. You will forever live in my heart. You said I'm your little twin. I am so thankful that God gave me a Big, Beautiful sister like you. Love always your baby sister and twin at hearts. To my family, I am praying and love you much

“ My heart truly goes out to Nicole's family. It is very obvious that Nicole has touched the lives of many and her loss is deep. Won't it be wonderful when the words in Isaiah 25:8 are finally fulfilled. It says "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah himself has spoken it."

While no amount of words can ever come close to erasing the pain of losing a loved one, I do hope that you may find some comfort in being with family and true friends.

“ Nicole and I were in training together in the PMC at AT&T. Throughout our time working together, I got to know her. She will be missed! My condolences to her husband, kids, family and friends. She left too early. It's not our place to know God's plan. We are but children ourselves in his eyes. I wish her safe journey!

“ My pretty little cousin, Nicole, who grew up to be a beautiful woman, and she was full of life and laughs. I'll miss the smile and laughs we had sharing our stories about "these mens" out here (Lol) and just life in general. Truly gone too soon. Rest easy til we meet again.

Love and miss you, Kaye
