“ I am so heartbroken to hear that my friend Nicole passed away in April . I last talked with her back in Feb to call and check in with her as I normally would. At the time, she was weak, yet her spirit stood strong. She had always been the friend and the sister that I never had, Always attentive, always giving good sound advice and always funny and filled with laughter. Even when she first got sick, she had a lot of faith and hope to carry her through. Although it hurts like heck to see that she's gone, i know that she's resting in God's peace and in a much better place. Chris, take care of your brothers. They are going to be looking up to you for guidance. Love ya always, SisDamian J Lyons

“ I just heard of Nicole's passing. I am sending my condolences to her family. Nicole and I cheered together at East High. I used to pick up her son often (Christopher) and spend the day with him...probably once a month during highschool. Nicole was such a great person and friend. May her legacy live on in her children.Love, Jessica (Baker) Acevedo

“ Nicole and I have so many memories....These photos are just a handful. I will forever speak her name....she will never be forgotten. She was a part of my everyday until the day before she passed away. I will continue to share our memories. I hope everything she instilled in her kids will continue to follow them for the rest of their days. I will miss Nicole more than anyone can imagine. I am glad she does not have to suffer anymore. But my life and many others are forever changed because of her departure from this earth. The pain will never go away but time will change the way the pain feels. I will continue to pray for her family.

“ I'm saddened by the loss of my friend Nikki. I met you in the 4th grade and we traveled through Owens, Compton, and East High together. Although we parted as friends when we were teenagers, we found our way back to that friendship we shared as kids now as adults. I'm glad God allowed for us to share the last 3 years as friends again. And although, I wish we had more time... I know that HE called you home at the right time. I will really miss you my dear friend. And boys, please remember that if there is anything you need please just say so. We all love you just as we loved and still love your mom. May you rest peacefully with the Lord, Nicole Y Moore. Forever you friend, Raquel Brown

“ There are literally hundreds of memories...I cannot think of a single memory I have from sophomore year of high school on that DIDN'T involve Nic in some way or another. She was my best friend for most of my teenage years, and though we were young and stupid and let the world drag us away from each other, we always found a way back to being friends. God truly blessed me with an angel when we met. If you knew Nicole Yvonne...life was never boring. We were always busy doing something! I will miss her more than words can say. And I pray the family she leaves behind knows that there are those of us that are here for you, whatever you need.
