“ Sharen and Frieda you two did an amazing job taking good care of your Daddy! I know he and your Mom are so proud of everything you have done and continue to do! Thank you both for being just who you are! Genuine and perfect! May the Holy Spirit continue to comfort you during the times when your loved ones absence hits you! (constantly because no one can get over someone they loved so much. By and by though we learn to accept the grace of God and the joy of all His promises and all His truths, and though those guarantees we are comforted!

“ Uncle Niles and Aunt Lucy's house was always exciting to go to back in the early 70s. They would come to visit us in Atlanta and we'd visit them in Conyers! Aunt Lucy would cook and whip up something for everyone to eat, then she would sit in the front room laughing and talking to her sister (Robbie- my Mom) while Uncle Nile would be laughing and talking with his best friend (Johnny Reid- my Dad). We played with Wanda, Sharen and Karen (the twins) and Frieda (the baby). Those were some good times! Uncle Niles would always be joking with me saying, " Hey Cynthia, girl don't call me Niles, I'm your Uncle Niles, I changed your diapers girl!" I would tell him to call me Auntie because I changed his! He would laugh every time and say girl you are so crazy! Niles was friends with Johnny Reid, Lee Junior McCollum, and James Rosell (raised by Queenie) in Conyers, Georgia since they were little boys playing at each other's parent's houses. They went to school together from grade school to high school graduating from J.P. Carr School. The friends married "The Hudson Sisters": Lucy (Niles), Eugenia (James) and Robbie,(Johnny). Wanda, my sister Teresa ,and I went to Heritage High School not far from where we all lived. Niles Mom "Grandma Anna" was an awesome woman who was a dignified Christian lady who loved the Lord and her family! The Forte family continues to honor, love, trust, and celebrate God ! They continue to celebrate one another and all the new generations! Now Uncle Niles rests in the peace of The Most High GOD along with those who transitioned before him! I miss Uncle Niles, Aunt Lucy, Wanda, Karen, y'all's Grandma Anna and the others. I was younger back in those days now I am old. I still love you all and keep his daughters, grand and great grands, relatives, in-laws and friends in prayer! I will say Uncle Niles was always a bright spirit who was always there for family. His singing touched everybody! His commit to his children and grandchildren was a testament to today's men and example for young fathers to follow! God bless!
