“ My dear friend, I am so so sorry I'm just getting the news of your passing. You was on my mind so much that I decided to check on you and make sure you was OK, when I got the sad news of your passing. We have always talked, and shared our experiences with each other. You would always call me when you wanted me to help you decorate, and when you gave of your time to volunteer with my team working on a few of my fashion shows. You was one of my many friends that prayed for me, and encouraged me to join New Birth Church. Thank you so much. I remember the times we spent at the Salvation Army working with our residents, and having to get away to lunch to relax from the hard work we did helping our clients. The last time we talk, you wanted me to come over and give you some ideas to help you redecorate you place. I remember I was afraid of your dog that you kept trying to get me to keep. You was such a wonderful friend. I will miss you forever. I know you are being so very fashionable in heaven my friend. I will always miss and love you, until we meet again.

“ From the moment we met, you were a vibrant and genuine soul. Your zest for life, and your amazing faith and perseverance sparked our connection. We sat and talked for hours, amidst a crowded and noisy room. It was there that our friendship was birthed, and it grew to be a friendship I'll always treasure. You will truly be missed, Nynette...but I'm so glad I had the privilege of meeting you and getting to know your beautiful heart! Rest in heaven...until we meet again, my dear friend.

“ Ninette not only help me get in my first new home but became a friend and confidant thereafter. My Toastmasters Coach always encouraged and supported me in whatever I aspired. She reminded me of living and being joyful. Owing my singleness as we venture on several lunches and escapades around Atlanta. I was blessed to tell her that I loved her about three weeks ago. She was on her way to the hospital for the last time before joining my mother on the other side. I will definitely miss her. My encouragement to the family, cling to Holy Spirit to guide you through this season and prepare to see her again. I am.

“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to Ninette Randall's family. She was indeed a beautiful soul with an infectious smile. I had the pleasure of serving with and learning from Ninette in our Teacher's Training courses as a facilitator as well. She was vibrant, fierce, and brave and she did indeed live life to the fullest. She will be sorely missed.

*Warmest regards,

“ *My sincere condolences and heartfelt prayers to the Family and friends of Ninette Randall. Ninette and I met years ago while working for the Premiere Flagship Bridal Salon "We Do" The Wedding Store in Buckhead. We shared many great times in this retail space and time of our lives. She loved to have fun!
We later reconnected as we rediscovered each other amongst thousands of Members of New Birth Missionary Baptist Church on Snapfiner!
We sojourned as Pilgrims in the Holy Land, Jeruallem, and baptized in the Jordan River. What great memories we have to comfort us during this time of bereavement.
Praying God's preace and comfort to all who know and loved her!
Warmly,
Elder Linda Simmons*

“ Ninette and I served together 2011-2012 as Teacher Training Facilitators, at New Birth MBC. She had aglow adout her that could not be denied. She encouraged me to Live Life to it's Fullest. She understood and went after the things that made her happy and filled her heart and life with joy, she focused only on what really matted, she knew what she wanted to achieve and accomplished every goal. She loved, touched and supported many with her loving Spirit. She lived a life of love and she will live in my heart forever. ❤️

“ My girl Ninette!! Met her years ago when we both worked for Sharon McSwain Homes. We connected instantly & became friends. Going to miss you & our long talks about everything. I text you last Tuesday about going to lunch this week. And I was so sad to hear of your transition. But I know life is so much sweeter with the Lord. Love you my laughing buddy & friend till the end. 🙏
