“ For over 30 years, I have had the great privilege of being friends with a family where Noel Uriah Berley, a man whose presence was as steady and grounding as the roots of the family he so dearly loved.

He wasn't just the patriarch of his family - he was the heart and soul. And for those of us lucky enough to call the Berleys friends, we eventually felt part of the family. I enjoyed and downright cackled at the stories Sandy (Sunita) has shared with me over the years. I knew intrinsically how much he meant to the family, especially to his baby girl.

I admired his devotion to his wife and his pride in his children and grandchildren.

He was a man of few words, but we hung on the few words uttered. Even in his final days, his grace and strength remained unchanged. He continued to show us all - not just how to live well, but how to let go with courage and peace.

To the Berley family: thank you for sharing him with the rest of us. Rest well, Noel Uriah Berley. You were one of the good ones - and we'll never forget you

*With love and respect,
Calvin Harrigan*
