“ This is Ms. Barnes, “mom” to me. Ms Barnes was the best science teacher any school in any district will ever find. Ms Barnes was not just a teacher or a favorite but a role model & someone who saved many without knowing. The saying is “not all heroes wear capes.” and thats true, instead Ms Barnes carries a big heart that was open to everyone. I would like to take this time to acknowledge the family of ms Barnes for sculpting such a beautiful soul & to remember her , I know I will. I say this with a heavy heart ; I’m glad she is ok now. I love you Ms. Barnes and I love your family just as much. If I had the opportunity to go back to freshman year and give you a longer hug , I would. I promise to continue making you proud. I love you so much

“Ms. Norah Barnes was my freshman science teacher, but she was so much more than that. She had an incredible ability to make learning feel engaging and fun, no matter how challenging the subject might be. Ms. Barnes went above and beyond for her students, giving her time, her energy, and her heart to make sure we felt supported. To me, she was not just a teacher—she was a mentor, a friend, and like a second mom. She even gave me her personal number when I left, so I would always have someone to reach out to. Her kindness, encouragement, and belief in each of us left a lasting impact that will stay with us forever. Thank you, Ms. Barnes, for the light you brought into our lives. You will be deeply missed and always remembered.

“ I was blessed to have met Norah recently. We had a brief time to get to know each other. Although it was brief, it was easy to observe the love she had for God, her family and all of those that crossed her path. May God strengthen and continue to bless the family and friends.

“ It's so surreal that you're not here! Norah, was a "Lady of Poise", one who carried herself with Confidence, Grace, Elegance, Class and Dignity. She was a Beautiful soul, beautiful smile, heart of Gold, a True Bargain shopper, and a Lady that gets things done. Now make no mistake about it, If she felt some kind of way, she had no problem expressing herself.

Norah displayed her spiritual tenacity to the end, never complaining, seemed unbothered even when things were difficult The one thing that stood out about Norah was, she loved everyone unconditionally. We had our moments over the 40+years as she has always said we are lifetime friends. Indeed..she was my beautiful friend. I will miss her 🥹🥹💔.

Take your rest Beloved, Respectfully submitted💕💕🙏🙏🙏

“ I have known this Gorgeous woman since our school days, I think 🤔 since middle school. And she never changed up, always smiling, and sooooo kind, just a wonderful friend. She called me about a week before she moved to Georgia, and she had called me to tell me about her cancer diagnosis. We said good morning to each other every morning. I will never forget you my beautiful friend, to Patrice and Brandon and the rest of the family, you all have my sincerest condolences 🌸 and 🙏🙏🙏. I'm sooooo hurt 😞 and saddened about losing my beautiful 😍 friend, but I know she's free of pain. RIP GORGEOUS, You will always remain in my 💔💔💔💔💔😞😞

“ Lil Auntie is what I always call you because your younger than me. My Tubi partner! I will miss our morning conversations about how we both just wanted to chill and watch Tubi movies! My kids remember the great meals and especially the raspberry kool-aid you used to make for us whenever we visited. Now they are grown and left with that great memory and they love you dearly. You will be truly missed!

“ Aunty I know you loved me because you told me so every day, if you missed a morning i would rush to call you! so that i got do it first just once lol. you were my Aunt but we grew up like cousins. Oh how many good times we had on 142nd street and just all of our lives. i loved when you would call me to say you just wanted to hear my laugh and we would giggle more than talk and that brought us both joy. I will miss you but i have so much to fill my heart with of your loving and caring ways that i think ill be alright untill we meet again. I will one day come to claim the piece of me you took with you. I love you more than words can say. Give all of our heavenly family a hug and a kiss from me. Baby Clinton, Junior, Mama, Clinton, Uncle Robert, Little Darryl, and a host of others. you are not alone, you are in the Lords house now, Glory, Glory Glory.....Diana
