“ *Rest in peace to my brother Norman.
He was my oldest brother. We shared the same father. He lived in Atlanta while I grew up in Memphis, and with the age gap we didn't get as much time together as I wish. Still, he was my brother, and that will always matter.
Gone but not forgotten.*

“Daddy, I pray that with time - my heart heals from this. This still feels so unreal to me. Like...a bad dream that I keep waking up to daily. I am trying my hardest to keep living my life fully and intentionally as you always rooted for me to do - but i feel so...lost. Like a piece of me is gone and i'll never be the same. Well...that is true. I see you every time I look in the mirror. I love you and miss you soooo so much. I loved you out loud while you were here and i'm loving you & honoring your legacy even louder now that you've ascended. Watch over your baby girl, but I know you will. 💙🕊

“ I am so very saddened to hear of Norman's passing. We grew up together and actually lived two streets apart. We walked and rode to school together during high school. We considered each other siblings and he would defend and protect me like a brother. He will truly be missed. I am thankful for God allowing us to be a part of each other's lives if only for a while. Rest in peace my dear friend and brother.

“ In Loving Memory of Norman Alexander Barnes

My deepest condolences to Alex’s family and loved ones. I had the honor of working alongside Alex at Quest Diagnostics, and he was truly a kind, dedicated, and dependable colleague. He carried himself with quiet strength, professionalism, and a genuine willingness to help others.

We often shared lighthearted moments at work teasing each other about football—Alex, a proud Dallas Cowboys fan, and me, a loyal 49ers fan. He always called me “Sis,” and those small moments of laughter are memories I will forever cherish.

Alex’s work ethic, integrity, and warm spirit left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him. He will be remembered not only for his years of service, but for the respect and kindness he showed each day.

May God surround his family with comfort, peace, and strength during this difficult time. Alex’s legacy will live on through the lives he touched.

Rest peacefully, Alex. You will be remembered.

“ To the family of Norman alex barnes. I am very sorry for your loss! Alex was like a brother to me. We both worked at Quest Diagnostics. He was in the cytology department and I was in histology department. He was the kind of person whenever you saw him. He was always positive and inviting to lend a listening ear. Alex was the person who got me interested in wearing hats. He called them tops, not hats! And he always wore nice tops!! Even with his lab coat! Alex was the coolest guy that I have ever met! And people talk about this thing called SWAG!!! Well, Alex had all the SWAG and more SWAG than anyone in Atlanta! I will miss my brother, tremendously! To his family and friends, May God bless you and strengthen you in this difficult time! Alex will live forever in our hearts 💕💕 Amen!!!!

I am truly sorry for your loss. Alex was such a positive person. He always had a smile and a good morning fist bump everytime you saw him. I will miss him saying "Gotta get my Go Go juice" whenever he was at his locker getting a sip of mountain dew. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family.

*Goodbye is not forever,
Goodbye is not the end.
It simply means I'll miss you,
Until we meet again.*
