

Norris Bernard Campbell II

December 29, 1979 - October 27, 2022

Norris Bernard Campbell II was charismatic, witty and ambitious. Known for his gregarious smile, keen intellect and elevated personal style, Norris lived fearless, loved deeply and was loved by so many.

A young man with a promising future, Norris was Senior Regional Facilities Manager with global residential real estate company Cortland, where he oversaw a portfolio that spanned the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic regions. His greatest joy was his daughter Caiden Natalia, and he took tremendous pride in the future he was building for her. Always guided by his own compass, Norris decided to be rebaptized as an affirmation of his personal faith. His soulful, deep thinking was reflected in everyday conversations with friends, colleagues and loved ones. Norris enjoyed questioning and engaging in thought-provoking conversations, motivating those around him to broaden their perspectives to different ideas.

On October 27, 2022, Norris unexpectedly departed this life and entered eternal rest at the age of 42.

Born on December 29, 1979, in Richmond, Virginia to Teresa Bradby Campbell and Norris Campbell, Norris II was adored by his family and especially his older sister Kimberly.

After graduating from Highland Springs High School, Norris attended the prestigious Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia and ultimately, made Atlanta his home. Driven by a tireless work ethic, Norris' professional career included positions with Grady Health System and the launch of his own entrepreneurial endeavor.

Norris leaves to cherish his memory daughter Caiden Natalia, mother Teresa Bradby Campbell, father Norris Campbell (Carolyn Campbell), sister Kimberly Yvette Campbell, devoted partner Tiffany Barnett and a host of family and friends.”

“ I worked with Norris many years while he was at Grady. He made a person think outside of the box and pushed you. I learnt alot from this great man. He will be missed by many.

“ I'm having an extremely difficult time processing this. It's been over a decade. That's over a million conversations and outings shared. That's so many shared secrets and feelings. That's watching so many episodes of the Office and Impractical Jokers. 😞 That's over a million HVAC tutorials and teaching moments. That's non stop daily games of ping pong and pool. So many laughs. I have so much more to share but it's impossible here. We had a long ride. I love and appreciate all of our experiences and memories and for that I am grateful. I extend my prayers and condolences, love and light to the Campbell family and Caiden. He was very well loved by so many. Please rest well Norris. ❤️

“ Babe.

You are a son, brother, father and friend to many but to me you are my soulmate, my lover, my confidant.

When we met I never imagined that we would become so close, I never imagined that you'd sneak a kiss and tell me you loved me first and surely never imagined that we would be planning a life together. Now that you're gone I'm cherishing every moment, every laugh every piece of ridicule and judgement about my car being dirty, every smile and touch because they made me who I am today. Our season was one filled with growth, lessons and most importantly love—deep love. Oh I love you deep. You've made such a lasting impression on me and I will cherish the time that we had forever.

From this moment forward I will live life intentionally, remembering the love that you gave to me, knowing that I'm deserving of nothing less and will move forward with Grace, with my head held high because I know you would accept nothing less.

I love you.
