“ Correction everyone, Nykita called me Shaw but my real name is pronounced Sharr. Yes Kim, she and I had some knockout conversations but despite of all I said to my friend who I miss soo dearly, she never not once had a bad attitude or held any grudges against me and that meant so much to me. Shaw loves you Nykita from the bottom of my heart! May your beautiful soul Rest In Peace.... Sharr Elliott-Hill

“ I have known Nykita since middle school. She was one of my best friends and even throughout the years we still kept in touch. I will always remember her smile and laugh. She was a person who always knew how to make me smile. I remember walking over to her house and we would just talk and laugh! I am saddened by her death but grateful that I know she was saved and is in Heaven right now. She feels no pain and is rejoicing beside my Lord. I will pray for her family.

“ Dearest Collins Family, my prayers are with you during this difficult time. I had the privilege to listen to Nikita's daily conversations with Shaw. They were very close and Shaw would encourage Nikita on a daily basis. Nikita's signature mark is laughter and when Shaw would chastise her for something, Nikita would laugh and laugh and laugh. Shaw never gave up and I never stopped listening. The growing bond between Shaw and Nikita was such a pleasure to watch. I cherish the opportunity to see how they grew closer and closer together. Just remember the joy with which Nikita approached life, as I will. GOD Bless you all.....Kimberly McClendon

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Nikita Conley-Smith. My heart goes out to you on the death of this beautiful young woman. I have a daughter the same age so hearing of Nikita's death really struck me. In reading the words that others posted, she was a remarkable, loving and caring person who will be sorely missed. That is why the words of our Heavenly Father who is aware of the pain you are feeling can be a source of comfort to you (2Corinthians 1:3,4). He is always here for us to rely on for the strength we need to be able to endure times such as this (Isaiah 41: 10,13). I hope his words and the support from your family and friends will help you through this difficult period.

“ Nykita was always smiling. She is smiling now being in the presence of God. Kiss and hug Auntie Keisha for me. I pray your mom, dad. brothers and kids can find some comfort in knowing that you are with God. Nykita made me laugh when we were younger I remember we went skating and she had her skates on the wrong feet so she kept falling and laughing. That what kind of person she was she was always smiling. In her absence everyone give a big smile to her family cuz if she was still with she would be smiling.

“ I'm so sorry about your loss. I would like to encourage you to read the bible because God's word is alive and full of comfort and hope. It will bring clarity to all the unanswered questions that you may have regarding death (Genesis 3:19). It will bring understanding as to what happens when we die (Ecclesiastes 9:5) and what hopes there's for all our dear loved ones who fell sleep in death (John 5:28,29, acts 24:15).I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Take care.Duke FamilyÃ,Ã Duke FamilyÃ,Ã - 4 minutes ago
