

Mrs. Ola Mae Moore

December 8, 1957 - March 28, 2024

Minister Ola Mae Moore was born on December 8, 1957 in Covington, GA. She was the third or seven children of the late James Freeman and Mary Dean Baker (Jack). She also had one sister proceed her in death, Kathy Hurst.

Ola joined Bald Rock Baptist Church at an early age, where she served faithfully in the senior choir. Through her life she attended various churches where she served faithfully, but currently she served Grace Christian Fellowship, Huntington, West Virginia; where she was dedicated to the missionary and outreach ministry. She was an invaluable contributor to the spiritual life and community engagement. Ola married Arthur on July 11, 1982. They were married for 41 years. Unto this union, three children were born.

Ola attended Rockdale County High school, where she received her high school diploma. She wore many hats in the career field, from CNA, food service and management. Ola loved to go fishing, out to eat, shop and spend time with her family.

On Thursday, March 28, 2024, Minister Ola Mae Moore gained her wings. She was loved by many and among those who will always cherish her memory are: her devoted husband, Mr. Arthur Moore; 3 children: Mrs. Teneeshia Haynes (Ray); Mr. Reno Moore (Misty); Miss Quaynteece Moore (Charles) 5 sisters and 1 Brother: Doris Guthrie, Brenda Devoe (Ricky), Robert Bruno (Brenda), Jacqueline Cobb (Lewis), Bessie Baker, and Deanie Baker. 12 Grandchildren: Shontica, Jasmine, Jade, Le'Asia, Damian, Demarcus, Baleigh, Arielle, Taylor, Kaidence, Dreyden and Skylar and 5 great-grandchildren: Jamiaya, Aubree, Sa'Naii, Nevaeh and Ry'mani. 2 special friends Rosetta Garlington and Wanda Harris. She also has a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
