“ I will always have fond memories of Olivayon. She was always soft spoken, but very persuasive in the things that she was passionate about. Although I knew of Olivayon during her high school days, I will never forget the thrilled we both share when we found out they we were related during our first family reunion. From that day forward, we spoke to each other frequently by phone and kept in touch after she left Dublin and got married. However during the later years, we didn't talk as much but she was always in my thoughts at various times. Needless to say, I was sadden by the news of her demise but will always remember my friend and cousin. Rest in God's Care.

“Olivayon, you will be truly missed. You were a dear, kind, loving and devoted woman of God. You loved the Lord in words and deeds. You dedicated your life to praying---a faithful member of H.O.P.E (Helping Others Pray Effectively). You were a former neighbor who was committed in joining my bible study group (Students of the Word). Your eagerness to share many powerful revelations contributed to my growth even as a teacher. God placed us together to learn from each other.

We shared our desire to be useful vessel as entrepreneurs and partners as event planners. The partnership was established however God had His plans.

You are now Celebrating. I now will join in the "Celebrations" on this side until we meet again.
