

Oliver Glover Jr

February 9, 1929 - November 25, 2020

Oliver Glover Jr was born in Summerville, South Carolina on February 9, 1929. He was the 3rd child born to Oliver Glover Sr. and Elizabeth Wade Glover. At an early age, the Glovers relocated to Brooklyn, NY where Oliver was educated and served in the church choir.

He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War, from which he was honorably discharged. He met and married Constance Barrett, Connie, and together they had one loving daughter, Marion. In 1965, they relocated from Harlem to Jamaica, New York where their house became the bedrock for the entire family. He worked and retired from The New York City Department of Corrections in 1990.

Oliver grew up with charisma and a penchant to entertain, utilizing his strong singing voice in Theater and the Arts. His love for singing was evident in the countless times he graced family and friends with his sensational voice. He loved to host events and captured countless moments through pictures and video. His favorite pastime was fishing, always ready for an adventure with family and friends.

“Poppa”, as he was affectionately called by his grandchildren and great grandchildren led a life of service always putting family needs and desires before his own. Oliver cared faithfully for Connie until her passing in 1998. He relocated to Atlanta, GA under the care of his daughter and son-in law post kidney transplant surgery in 2011. Oliver was a loving and caring person. Always pleasant, positive and giving. He will be greatly missed.

He leaves his cherished legacy to his daughter, Marion Leader, son in law, Arthur Leader, grandsons, Khalid and Joye Leader, Ahmad Leader, Jamal Leader, great granddaughter, Grace Leader, siblings, Miriam Glover, Ethel LeGrand, Nancy Saddler, Bobby and Jackie Glover, and Robert 'Butch' Glover, god-daughter, Jelene, nieces, Ida Timmons, Valerie Glover, Terry Glover, Dana Glover, Lisa Glover-Gardin and Barry Gardin, nephews, Harvey and Kim LeGrand, Raymond and Kathy Cruz, great nieces Shadiya, Sugar, Danielle, Samantha and a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, grand nieces and nephews.

“ I visited my best friend Marion at the family home in Jamaica many times for birthday parties. Ollie as I called him was a joy to be with. As the godmother to his grandson Khalid, Ollie treated me as a member of the family. I suspect that Ollie made all who crossed his path feel special and loved. God keep your soul in his loving arms for all eternity.
