“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, “is to be brought to nothing”! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah’s resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future. Visit us at www.jw.org for more spiritual comfort.

“ We are deeply sadden by the lost of you most noble mother. The loss and pain of both your beloved father and mother is a feeling that can never be replaced. But cherish the memories and opportunities they presented you and your family and have faith and comfort knowing they rest in peace in the bosom of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. Love, Kenneth, Candy, Kennedy and Kaitlyn Harper.

“ Dear in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his saints (Psalm 116:15) Aunty Busola, we love you but God loves you more hence the cords that holds you in pain have been broken (Psalm 116:16). Walk magestically into peace now that you have found rest as you lie in peace (Isaiah 57:1). Sun re o, Aunty. Sun re!!!

“ I will always remember Auntie Busola's kindness to me. I was about 11 years old and we were visiting from Ho, Ghana. I loved to climb trees and as a result I had many sores on my legs. When Auntie saw all my sores she took it upon herself to dress my wounds every night until they healed. Now almost 30 years later I am still overwhelmed with her act of kindness. Mobola, Banke, Sope and Bunmi I pray the Lord will comfort you during this time as only He can. I pray the peace of God will flood your souls - God bless, Adomasa

“ We thank God for the life of our dear Aunty Busola. Your love, laughter and warm smile we shall miss. A woman of excellence and integrity. The virtuous wife of my dear Uncle Basola. We continue to pray that the Lord will take care of your children, grandchildren and the entire family, and comfort us at this difficult time! Farewell Aunty till we meet again You are now safe and in God's care!

“ Words cannot describe the shock and despair I felt when I heard the news of Auntie Busola's passing. It brought back memories of my Uncle and Godfather 'Uncle Basola' who went to be with Jesus three years ago. I cannot separate Uncle and Auntie because they were one, and some of my joyous memories are of both. They demonstrated the Love of God and brought much joy into my life over the years. I am honored and privileged that they shared their travels, adventures, and life experiences with my family. To my dear cousins Mobola, Banke, Sope, and Bunmi, remember 'The Lord will never leave nor forsake you' and may the joy of the Lord, Jehovah be your strength. Amen. Love ya'll. Auntie Busola we will miss you. God Bless, Ama.

“ The news of Busola's passing suddenly brought back memories of grief and sadness I felt three years ago when her husband, my brother Basola was called home to be with the Lord. In such a short time, my four beautiful nieces lost both parents and I lost two very important people in my life. I remember our growing-up years.... St. Anne's School... All Saint's Church... College in the the U.K.... raising our children.... globe trotting.... extended family events... Basola's comic moments (Busola and I - reluctant audience)... good times... better times... all life's challenges ... victories in Christ... all seem like yesterday... But thanks be to God for ... His Grace and Mercy... His Promises... Calvary... Our Savior is coming back!.. and, NOTHING CAN SEPARATE US FROM GOD'S LOVE WHICH IS IN CHRIST JESUS OUR LORD, Amen' Mobola, 'Banke, 'Sope 'Bunmi and the rest of our families will continue to trust and believe the TRUTH OF GOD'S WORD. Beyond the sunset, O blissful morning, When with our Savior, Heav'n is begun. Earth's toiling ended, O glorious dawning, Beyond the sunset. When day is done. Beyond the sunset. O glad reunion. With our dear loved ones. Who've gone before. In that fair homeland. We'll know no parting. Beyond the sunset. Forever more. Sun re o, Busola, 'Iya Ijebu." Ronke Adesola-Nornoo ('Iya Egba. }
