

Omar Adams

September 30, 1976 - November 9, 2020

Born September 30, 1976 in Birmingham, AL, Omar was always smiling, bright and curious. As a child, he loved creating and repairing electronics. He even won recognition from Birmingham Southern College while in elementary school, for one of his creations.

Omar never met a stranger. He was a great conversationalist. After talking with him, he'd leave you reeling or feeling (sometimes both).

He enjoyed traveling the country as a truck driver and loved sharing information about the places he visited.

Omar was loved unconditionally by his family and friends.

He leaves behind six treasures that are his crowning achievements. Three sons: Caleb, Omar Jr., and Kadeem; and three daughters: Janea, Jasmine, and Amyra.

Lastly, he leaves behind to cherish his memory, a mother (Colleen Adams), an older sister (Stephanie Roper), a younger brother (Rashad Adams). He also leaves behind three loving aunts, two uncles and many cousins.

His loss has left a gaping hole in our lives but his bright and enlightening spirit will forever remain in our memory and hearts.

A Melancholy Goodbye

The night has come upon your face
Your troubles are gone from this
Earthly
Place

As a young boy I loved you well
So sad into each other's lives
We no longer
Dwelled

Always intelligent, friendly,
And witty
You fought alongside us all
We try and try, we still fall
As God scooped you up,
Finally to deliver your silver cup
Of love, freedom and grace
Signaling goodbye to this lonely
Earthly place

Rest nephew, Rest now

Aunt Wanda A.
