Hi Dakota,
I was one of Ora's friends at one point when She first moved to Atl. We lost contact with one another and I decided to Google her name today to try and reconnect with her. I am so sorry to hear she passed away. She was such a good person. Sonja

“ My big sister Ora was the 2nd oldest of nine (9) children. She was the example of successful in all aspects of her life to all her siblings & her own parents. Ora wanted everyone to further their education and live their best life. I have comfort knowing that she has joined her parents Jessie & Melvin and her sister Lydia in the heavens above, were she will one day help all her family over to that side. Ora loved her Husband Clifford (Cliff) ,who never gave up on her through her long illness. Ora loved her children Cameron and John ... she will be their guardian angel. I love you Ora, i will miss you so much. You sister Dakota

My Big Sis Peewee, thank u 4 always being there for me. She would fly me to Atl every year to be with her. She kept me looking fly in hi school with all the Pelle fits she bought me. I was her flower girl in her and Cliffs wedding. The last time I came to visit her in Atl 2 years ago, I stayed out all nite and when I came back in the house she slapped me so hard 🤯 she was worried about me because in her eyes I was still a little girl 2 her. My sister was very kind and loving to me, I will miss you so much. Even though it's sad that you're gone, I'm happy that you dont have to suffer anymore, I know u will be 1 of my guardian angels.. I love you and will see u later
