Errol, you have been the big brother since I was a child, as young as I could remember. You always extended a listening ear. You patiently listened to the many different issues I have experienced through life. You always kept in touch remaining hopeful and encouraging to hang-in-there even into my adulthood. You love your family and they were your pride and joy in life. Your life was dedicated to their welfare. Our prayer team prayed for you daily but your time was in God's hands. Rest In Peace my brother and thank you for your listening ears. You will be missed by family and friends.

“ Deepest condolences to Aunt Marilyn, Kim, and Lashone during this time. Uncle Oral was always kind, hard working, loved his family and loved God. I will always remember his natural smooth, cool, and approachable personality, which served him well personally and professionally. One of my best memories was when I visited while in Atlanta on other business. A normal family visit turned into a full tour of neighboring real-estate developments, inside and out. We had many insightful conversations about various subjects, and of course, as always he asked about how "Lickle Sport"- his nickname for my Father with whom he bears a striking resemblance, was doing. I am so thankful to have taken that opportunity while I had the chance, as Uncle Oral's passing gives that moment even greater significance.
