“ God has called his Angel home. Orvall will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing or meeting him. He never met a stranger and always had a story to tell. I always enjoyed listening to him talk about Dogs, Photography, Music & Military. A true Friend. My Condolences to the family.

I was sad to hear the news of the loss of our dear friend. We knew Baker, as we called him, when he lived in Baton Rouge, LA and where he played the guitar in the young adult choir at Greater Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. My mother "adopted" him as she was prone to do with many students who attended Southern University; so he was often at our home. His big smile and even larger sense of humor filled our home with joy and laughter. We lost contact with Baker when he moved to Atlanta but connected by chance about 7 years ago when he was the IRS employee who answered our phone call! He was the same fun-loving Baker, and he helped us, too. This world will miss this bright soul who made me and so many laugh and smile and forget our troubles for a while. Rest In Peace and power, my friend. My sincere condolences to the family. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.
