“ We share your sorrow and deeply sympathize with you, for we understand your sense of loss; we miss your beloved Oscar too. Just to let you know that your loved one Oscar touched lives and brightened many of our Sundays at St. Michael & All Angel! Oscar was kind and very encouraging. He sat a few pews behind me and we always conversed at length every Sunday, he would pull me up for my late coming or absences, and he would tell me so much about his journey through life. Every Sunday he would tell me about going home to eat his wonderful meal his daughters (I feel like I know them personally) prepared, and he would always say to me, I do not know what they have cooked for me today. We always parted with his joke, "I am going home to get drunk with the Holy Spirit." We will sure miss Oscar with his quiet but impressive self in the pew he sat in all those years. May he rest in peace, and God give you the strength to deal with your loss.

“ Dearest Oscar, our good friend from St. Michaels. You were such a positive light, sharing words of wisdom and speaking blessings over our family. You always gave my Mother words of encouragement as she battled Kidney Failure, always ensuring us that God will never fail us. I will also remember our son never failing to give you a "high 5" each time he recieved his blessing. He always walked right next to your seat just to give you five. Sometimes those 5 fives turned into big hugs. Although we had not seen in you in 4 years, the impression you left on us will never fade. Walk good Oscar, we will miss you!

My condolences to the Watts family. Oscar and I bonded naturally. From Holy Cross to St Michaels I sang under his guidance and waited afterwards for his inspirational comments. Early participants in our home Countries march towards independence we had much to discuss in our newly adopted Country. I shall miss you Oscar, my brother, my distinguished model of Caribbean gentlemanliness. Walk good.
