“ I remember his participation at the home Bible studies we all used to attend at Eureka Gardens and other locations. He and Luke would participate and engage in the study/activities held. They were always respectful and jovial. Those were fond memories with everyone. Dishاون and I will keep praying for those Uriah has left behind. We love you Pastor Craig and your family!

“ To Uriah's parents and family. Life is really difficult and beautiful at the same time. Difficult because of times like these. Beautiful because God comes near and helps us through them. Beautiful because Uriah was born and blessed the lives of so many. And beautiful because he answered the call that Jesus gives to all of us to make Him Lord of our lives. I trust that God will keep and comfort this family of faith through this loss and ultimately bring to life something beautiful in time. I love you. Monti Davis Kamau

“ He had such a sweet personality and just a delightful child. His grandmother Theresa Leverette adored her first grandson. I get a sense of relief that he's not suffering anymore and that he's in the presence of God and among his love ones especially his grandmother. God bless his parents in their time of sorrow and know that to be absent from the body is to be present with our Lord and Savior. No amount of words can express the loss of him. We will miss all the accomplishments that he would have achieved.

“ When he was in elementary school where his father taught beside me, he would join my children in my room in the afternoon to play on the Wii on many afternoons. This was especially true on teacher planning days and faculty meeting days. Uriah was always such a bright light to all my children and was so accepting of my son, who has autism. As I've watched him grow up from the distance of Facebook, it's been amazing to see him retain his child-like enthusiasm. He will be so deeply missed.

“ We used to call him by “Uriah “ at mandarin . He made friends with everyone , all genders , backgrounds, race . Uriah was goofy , funny , outgoing and well mannered! Never judged a book by it's cover . Will be missed & forever loved
