“ My dear, dear Nutty, my words are set free with my shared tears of those you left behind. Know that our tears is enough to make that glass stairs and join you in heaven and look upon your lovely face with thoughtful eyes and caring stare. But we'll let our tears flow to the Jordan and wash over all those that journey to its beauty and know that you will forever be a part of this world. My dear Nutty May you paint the most beautiful of notes to the beat of the thunder and pitter patter of rain. My memories of you were and forever painted in my heart and the sweetest memory was watching you bring up your DJ equipment to the second floor of 589 E 22nd Street eighteen years ago to play my requested songs for my one year old daughter's birthday. Nutty you always sought the path most resistance and while your arms never still, it has reached across many streets, many mountains and lifted many to their feet and to find their place. Good bye Nutty, sweet thoughtful and ever so caring, Nutty. We will forever carry you in our hearts and your footsteps are cemented in this world, but we will meet again and we'll watch for you in the clouds and pictures that you'll create in the sky. Goodbye Nutty, thank you and I thank God for sharing you with us and your parents for continuing God's vision. We will forever remember you. Love And In Memory, Deborah Pellew

My friend Nutty, I can't even begin to put words together to formulate what I want to say, so I'm just gonna let it flow. You have been more than a friend to me. Your jovial ways would make anyone bust out laughing. You would say to me, Charlene, why you're move so? Especially when we have a fall out? We could never stay mad at each other. When I come to the house..you would say...Nadine noh here...and close the door in my face, and then come and open it back and say...ah joke man. 😊 This is not how it's supposed to be, but who am I to judge and or question. You will always be forever in my heart. Marsha, I will continue to lift you and the kids up in prayers. This hurts like hell..they say weeping may last for the night, but joy comes in the morning. The joy of the Lord is our STRENGTH. May your soul rests in perpetual peace. And if there are any typos, blame the tears. I will miss you and will forever have you in my heart. Rest easy King 🙏!!! 🤔🤔
