“ To Vinson Sr. and family:

At this moment your hearts are heavy, your souls are empty, and your spirits are broken. However; in the name of our lord and savior, Jesus Christ, please know that everything is already alright. For, God has a plan for us all and he makes no mistakes. I know that right now the road might be rough. But, right now is the time that you must stand in faith to trust and believe that God can, and God will take care of you. You must know that he will not give you a burden that is too heavy for you to carry. I pray that you have strength to endure these trying times by rejoicing in his name and remembering the joy and laughter that Pam brought to all who knew and loved her. She will truly be missed.

*With my sincerest sympathy,

“ Pam & I had the pleasure of reconnecting last year. We laughed about fond childhood memories of playing together as children, chasing the chickens around the yard, using the outhouse and making mud pies at her Aunt Bessie Mae Mosely's home in 96, SC. It was such a joy to see her smiling face filled with love. Pam never mentioned that she had failing health. She was a warrior for Christ. I will forever cherish the memories of our last union. God's blessings to Pam's family. Aunts: Ms Flora, Annette & Emma Lee Mosely of Greenwood, SC.

*Bountiful Blessings!

“ To the Family, it is with a heavy heart that I express my sympathy for the loss of such a beautiful woman. Pamela was my buddy, my friend, and my riding partner (although we didn't go far). She was someone whom I trusted with my innermost inhibitions and she never judged me or complained. Pam showed the world that despite her illness(s) she was able engage in horseback riding, which was her passion. Her smile, her honesty, and her strong will kept me going, and every time I think that I can't do it... I will think of Pam and thank God for blessing us with her presence.

Sincerely,
Lisa McKinzie

“ To the Family of Pamela Brown, you all have my deepest sympathy. I have known Pam (also known to me as Pammy by the Mosley family). I met her over 30 years ago @ Flint Hill Baptist Church...we were both very young..and I always remember her beautiful smile and how friendly and sweet she was. I always looked forward to seeing her every summer when she came down South to visit family. I know she will be greatly missed but knowing that she is in a much Better place and no more suffering is Peace of mind. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.
