“ Ms Pam, I heard your voice today(via clubhouse) and it made me feel good. listening as you read the word confirmed that you understood your assignment. You left lasting impressions on so many. Just sharing your beautiful smile, your warm hugs, your generosity and sincere friendship made a difference to us all. I will miss you, but I know we will meet again. To know you was to love you! Rest Now my love!

To the family, I pray for continued strength during this painful adjustment.

with love,

Tamika & Jaden!

“ Pam will surely be missed. I thank her for all she did as our work mom. She was more than our secretary. Pam had the sweetest softest spirit. She would always encourage me. She would always tell me to recognize my worth. She said she appreciated the kind of person I was. I certainly encouraged and appreciated her. Rest in Heaven for now, Pam. You are with the angels and our Lord, Jesus! You have peace, happiness, and all joy. I am forever grateful to have known you and been a part of your life.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Ms. Pam over the last couple of years and for that I am grateful to God. When I first started as a new nurse, I could count on Ms. Pam to speak to me gingerly with great love and patience. She would edify me when I doubted myself and helped to support me with sincerity. Ms. Pam could tell when I was having an "off" day and would offer her wisdom that would help settle whatever I was carrying. I enjoyed all of the updates she would share with delight regarding her grandchildren. Ms. Pam will surely be missed, yet I am certain heaven is rejoicing.

My deepest condolences to family and friends. May the peace of God provide comfort to you all continually. - Amber Lee Jordan

“ Was so shocked and saddened to hear of Pam's passing. Worked with her a little over 27 years. She came to L&D about 6 months after me. Pam was very dependable and I know she will be missed.

“ Ms. Pam took me under wing during my first job as a nurse. She always gave me direction not only professionally but in my personal life as well. I always felt like every time we talked she just had it all figured out. During my second pregnancy she was the one who actually made a cute mini gender reveal for me. She had in one hand a pink paper and in another a blue paper. We celebrated together. Even after I left GWP, she kept in contact with me often. Thank you for all the memories. May you rest in peace. - Alex Fields

I worked with Miss Pam (as I affectionately referred to her) for 24 years. We shared a love for the word and often had our discussions on Bible verses and other Biblical contents. She worked hard and most efficiently at her job and has always remain calm and professional. My sincere condolences and prayers to her daughter, granddaughter and great grandchildren, her other family members and also to her work family. May the life that she lives speak for her when she's gone. Rest well Miss Pam!- Deloris Kanhai.

“ I met Pam when I was new to L&D in 1999. I always knew when she was there, we were in good hands. She always directed the flow of traffic well from her chair and over saw things we may have missed as we were focused on our individual patients. She handled emergencies with ease. She had a contagious smile. She loved her family so much and spoke about them every day sharing stories and pictures. I will miss her always and offer condolences and prayers to her sweet family. May we meet again.

“ Pam was more than an Armour Bearer to me. She was more than a member of One Lord House Of Worship. Pam was a Woman of God I called Friend since 1993. I will miss her dearly. I will miss her smile. I will miss her hugs. Till we meet again in glory, Pam, take your rest.

“Be careful how you treat people. You may be entertaining angels, unaware. Pam was an angel too many.”
