“ Pastor Watts was an old school preacher. He had no formal education and often spoke of the desernment he got from God. He loved God and knew he was the Chosen One. He shared books of the bible with me. I came to love him as a Spiritual Father and Leader. He made me feel hope and always told me God loves you. I will miss him from Love Fellowship Church on Sunday walking the isles and smiling as he brought God's Word. My most memorable thing bout Pastor he would always smile and preach and turn and say, " ain't that good, or that's good." Rest In Heaven Pastor Watts

“ I will never forget the times we shared! Him expressing to me, how he grew up as a little boy. All we would talk about is Jesus! And what He had done in our lives. We talked about the greatness of God. He, his son A. J. And I would stay up late nights sharing our experiences of th Lord, and what He was doing and showing us about Him. It was some of the most amazing exciting times of my moments shared with Papa Watts. May the work he’s done speak for him. Much Love, my Brethren and Pops in God, Eddie Brogdon
