“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mrs Pat Battle. She and I became friends in 1983 at Berean Baptist Church in Brooklyn, NY. She was soooooo beautiful inside and outside. Although she relocated to GA, we would talk or text each other every week sometimes more. The last Saturday I called her, she said I'm in the hospital. She said my daughter is here, I said hi daughter and Pat repeated what I said. I miss my friend and pray that she's in the arms of Jesus.

“ To the Battle Family,

Experiencing the death of a wife, mother, grandmother and sister is so personal that very few of us can understand the grief involved. Perhaps it will help to ease your pain if you know that Pat will be greatly missed by all who knew her and that will share in your loss.

I will never forget her smile that brightens up a room when she walked in.

In memory of Patricia "Pat" Battle

A beacon of grace, Whose presence brought solace in life's hectic race, whose presence brought comfort in every embrace.

Pat's warmth embraced all those she met, Her wisdom and love, was a treasure none could forget.

A woman of distinction, she walked with God's grace, Guiding lost souls, and lighting up every darkened space.

A beacon of wisdom, she offered guidance true, Her words like a balm, bringing solace anew.

For she was more than just a woman, phenomenal and bright, Pat was a guiding star, a beacon in the night.

In her community and home, her light shone bright, a truth-teller with a direction clear, Through trials and triumphs, she remained steadfast and sincere.

Pat stood amongst and fought giants, never showing fear, A force of nature, her legacy forever near.

A source of inspiration for all who had known. Though she's now departed, her legacy will live on,

Though we'll miss her dearly, In cherished moments and memories we'll keep, in the silence of moments and thoughts and in the tears we weep.

Pat's radiance ignites so bright, in the hearts she's touched with light.

Her essence endures, a guiding star in the night.
