She will be greatly missed. She touched so many lives. Family, though your heart is sad, know that earth has no sorrow, that heaven cannot heal. Let not your hearts be troubled, Cast all of your cares upon God, for He careth for you. It is my prayer that God will hold you up with His right hand of righteousness as He strengthen you each passing day. God bless. Pastor Smith ❤️ 🙏

“ My deepest sympathy to the entire family of Patricia Battle - Laborn, My heart is aching with the news that Patricia has slept away, But, my spirit is rejoicing knowing that she is with our Father in Heaven, I can see Aunt Ruby at the golden gate with welcoming arms, saying here comes my beautiful daughter (mama) as she would call her sometimes (jokingly), I would like to say to Tony, when your days seem dark and lonely, and all your friends have gone about their daily activities, and the crowd has gotten very thin, just remember all the great times the two of you had together, I am sure that she want you to be happy, Patricia always had such a beautiful smile on her face, that definitely was contagious, she will be truly missed, We will all see her again as long as we put all our trust in God, Nobody knows the day nor the hour, But, God is giving us one more day to get our house in order. I love you family... Angela Campbell Clemmons and Family of Alpharetta, Georgia

“ Pat was an amazing beautician and person! On December 4, 1993, Pat left the shop to come to New Hope Baptist Church to make sure that my wedding veil was placed correctly over my hair style — which were curls! She took the time to do that for me, because it was important to her and it was my special day. She wanted my veil and hair style to flow together on head! Lol Pat was truly a knowledgeable professional caring cosmetologist. Pat was also a very caring, kind, compassionate , and generous person! We shared so many good laughs and fun times on Saturday mornings! She was a blessing to me and my family! I'm grateful to God for her beautiful life and allowing our paths to cross. Thank you, Pat! Rest In Peace. Love you, Lottie Harris

My condolences to Mrs. Patricia Battle Laborn family, especially her husband Tony, of which she loved dearly. This was my beautician, and my friend. I could talk to her about anything and she would tell me exactly what she thought. I'm definitely going to miss this beautiful lady. Thank you Pat, for dealing with me every Friday morning at 7:30 AM., for years. Winter, spring, summer, and fall, you were there, if the train didn't catch you (OUR INSIDE JOKE). I love ❤️ and will definitely miss you. I promise I will stay away from the perm. REST IN HEAVEN PAT.
