

Patricia Anne Cooper-Thomas

July 14, 1947 - July 27, 2024

Mrs. Patricia Anne Cooper-Thomas, age 77, was a beloved wife, mother of three daughters, grandmother of three, sister, loving aunt, cousin, mentor and friend who passed away early July 27, 2024. Patricia was the oldest of five children born to the late Reverend Davis A. Cooper Sr. and Rose Ann Tharpe Cooper.

Patricia married the love of her life, Franklin Delano Thomas on March 21, 1963, and their marriage was blessed with three daughters. She was educated in both Blackshear and Waycross, Georgia and graduated from Lee Street High School in 1965 with honors. She was deemed a high achiever. Nevertheless, Patricia sang in the school choir and served as a school office aide. Later in 1964, she became a United States Army wife!

In 1966, she joined her husband, Delano in Fort Bragg, North Carolina, where she was a housewife. In 1967, they drove to Fairbanks, Alaska, where she worked in the Courts and Boards of the city, until the family returned to Fort Benning, Georgia. From 1973-1989, she worked at several installations with the Department of Defense Communications (Fort Campbell, KY, Charlotte, NC, Fort Leonard Wood, MO, Fort Benning, GA, Fort Bliss, TX, and Fort Richardson, AK). In 1989, she worked in the hospital postpartum unit at Fort Stewart, GA., while simultaneously leading the Enlisted Wives Club (teaching all senior ladies on how to maintain operations while their husbands were deployed to the Middle East). In 1990, during Desert Shield/Desert Storm, Patricia served as the spokesperson for the Enlisted Wives at Fort Stewart and Hunter Army Airfield. She was interviewed on the Today Show with Bryant Gumbel and NBC News with Joe Garagiola and received high praise! Furthermore, she participated in erecting a monument in honor of all 24th Infantry Division Soldiers. From 1994-1996, her husband and she were stationed in the Republic of Panama where she worked at Gorgas Hospital. From 1997-2005, this amazing woman finally retired as a Logistical Coordinator for the Fort Gillem Commissary. Overall, she loved and honored her country by decorating her various homes in red, white and blue. We salute her patriotic duties and life's work!

Patricia BELIEVED in FAMILY! She enjoyed assisting with the establishment and maintenance of the Hightower Family Reunion Directory for approximately 45 years. Her efforts resulted in 200 family members attending the recent family reunion in Atlanta, July 18-21, 2024!

Patricia was preceded in death by her father, Reverend Davis A. Cooper, Sr. and mother, Rose Anne Tharpe Cooper, and brother, CPO (Ret.) Joshua E. Cooper. She leaves to cherish her memories and legacy to her husband, CSM (Ret) Franklin Delano Thomas (married 61 years), daughters: Dr. Della M. Thomas-Culver, Chiquia D. Thomas-Quick and Kandice R. Thomas-Crockett (Ryan), grandchildren: Chalis X. Crockett, Natalyn V. Crockett, Julian T. Crockett, Michael Brinkley, Courtney Culver Simmons (Brandon). Great-grandchildren: Victoria Dowdy, Stephen Dowdy, and Grace Nicholson. Brothers: Davis A. Cooper, Jr. (Cecile), Benjamin F. Cooper, SFC (Ret.) Asa G. Cooper (Erika) and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ To be born into a family of "Best Friends" to each other is a powerful gift (Pat, Bug, Ben, Asa, and Josh).
Pat, my sister, to know you is to love you! As your brother, I wanted you to live forever; however, years have equipped me with a realization that one can only pray that someone you love finds joy in the brief time God gives us on this earth.
LOVE you forever is the sum total of my thoughts of you.

“ Our sincere condolences to Delano, Della, Chiquia, Kandice, Aunt Inez and the entire Thomas Family in the loss of the lady who I also call "Aunt Pat". She was always like family to me from the day that my Uncle Chip and Aunt Inez introduced me to her and Delano. When I would be in their presence at Thomas events we would always have a good time. Pat had the energy that would always cheer you up and the personality to warm your heart. She will be greatly missed. We grieve with the family in the loss of Aunt Pat. Please know that we are praying 🙏 with the family during this difficult time and will continue to do so in the days ahead. Love you all.

“ So very sorry to hear about Patricia. We have known each other since childhood. My aunt was a seamstress and would make clothes for her that’s how we became friends. She and I have messaged each other as a way of communicating. I spoke to her last year when one of her brothers passed. She had that same laugh as always. The ones here in Waycross who knew her, will remember her beautiful smile. My husband and myself extend our sincere condolences and prayers to her husband, children, brothers, and all family and friends. May God grant His peace and comfort to each of you. My family and I are so saddened by the transition of Cousin Pat. Although we trust she's with the Lord, she is and will be greatly missed among us. We admired her determination and stamina until the end. At the reunion, it was sooo nice seeing her and knowing she spent her final days among family and friends loving on her. We will continue to keep the family lifted in prayers. 🌸
