“ I met Pat as a young college student from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma attending Clark College now Clark Atlanta University. Pat was a big sister and momma rolled up into one while I was attending college in Atlanta . She made sure I was fed spiritually and physically. Forty plus years later, she was still this sweet, loving and kind woman of God! I flew from Oklahoma this pass March to attend the Hymn and I concert, not knowing that would be the last time I would see her physically. She is now resting in the arms of Jesus. Rest well my friend. You ran your race with excellence! Love Cynethia (Jones) Rayford Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

“ The Grigsby family visited our home when I was a child. Pat's late father, Rev. Morris Grigsby, was an assistant pastor under the late Rev. R.R. Freeman. At a choir anniversary at Zion Missionary Baptist Church on Lemon St. in Marietta, I heard the adult Pat Grigsby sing. One can imagine the voice of an angel hearing Evangelist Pat sing. So glad to be able to say I knew her, and to say she is truly a child of God. RIP Pat.

“ For you To know:

My first view of Patricia was in our neighborhood as a beautiful, bold, God fearing, and professional young black woman. One who broke glass ceilings, a chance for young black teens/women to model, a songstress who sang melodies of praise and worship of who God is. A momentous moment “ 1970's aired on television, from a church on Smith and Gardner streets, Atlanta, GA with her melodic voice who gave hope and enhancement to our homes and communities. In addition, an investment and encouragement to sing. An epitome for my grands/her nieces to know it was by the Word of a graceful, merciful, loving and righteous God who did this great work in their aunt Patricia in Jesus name. Thank you for letting Quan know of your love, I am truly grateful. To a woman of excellence, It was an honor, and you will be missed.

Now, Your King, and heavenly home awaits you, Rest In Him!,

“ It was a true spiritual blessing being a part of the Praise team led by Sis. Pat at the Cathedral of Faith COGIC for several years. She was certainly one of God's anointed ministers of music who graced us with her beautiful voice! May God bless your family with the strength to go through this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I still don't believe it... I met Pat over the phone back in 1980 or so. I lived in Detroit and was moving to Atlanta. An executive from Savoy Records said, "Go to Cathedral of Faith!" The next thing I knew, Pat Grigsby was calling me with an invitation to visit and meet Pastor Greer whenever I came. I visited and joined under watch care... and the rest, they say, is history! Patricia Elaine Grigsby carried the love of the Lord in that brilliant smile... I will never forget running from the parking lot to get into worship because we knew she would take us to the Throne Room... Well, now she's in that Throne Room! Praise God... I loved her greatly and she will be missed.

I met Pat in the early 80's while attending college at Clark College now Clark Atlanta University. I became a member of Cathedral of Faith under watch care and loved every minute of Wednesday night, Sunday morning and Sunday night service. Pat made sure this young out-of-state college student was fed spiritually and physically. Forty plus years later, Pat continued to be that same sweet, loving woman of God. I flew in from Oklahoma to join her for the Hymn and I concert this pass March not knowing it would be the last time I would see her physically. She is now resting in the sweet arms of Jesus. Rest well my friend, your ran an excellent race! Cynethia Rayford- Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

“ Wow, what can you say about someone who you shared singing in the Choir for 20+years. Awesome times spent sharing family stories, traveling to singing engagements and of course our rehearsals in the Upper Room. Patricia you will definitely be missed. Praying for the family.

*Lovely,
