“ I was probably one of Mrs. Nelson worst foster child but I can say before she had enough she was very patient with and tried her best to help me change my ways but I was young. I remember she had this big black dog I believe it was a cane corso but it used to slob on me everywhere she would always tell me well get away from him lol always in a joking but very serious she meant what she said but I was thinking bout her and looked her up and was very shocked I give my condolences 🌸❤️

*Dr. MELSON was my mentor for over 10 years. I was her hairstylist. We worked together at PMC Counseling and Consulting. She was well respected for her leadership and professional approach. I just drove by her house, the color looks beautiful, I was going to do a pop in visit. We lost touch in 2022. I pray that she was surrounded by her children, grandchildren during her last days. She loved ALL of you.
In loving memory.

Today is Aug 24, 2023. I just learned that Dr Melson passed away on yesterday and was not able to confirm it until I found this site. Dr Melson loved God and she loved her career. I considered her a dear friend. She will be missed. May God bless her soul and the family, friends, loved ones and acquaintances that she leaves behind.

“ My Dearest Dr. P! My heart briefly stopped when I received the news of your passing. We just spoke a few weeks ago and you were fussing at me about taking the time off that I need to finish this PhD program. You were preparing to launch your next business venture as you never let any grass grow under your feet when it came to BUSINESS! I admire your humor, boldness, and fierceness. There is TRULY NO OTHER LIKE YOU! YOU will be terribly MISSED and ALWAYS LOVED! your Men-tee, Angela L. Dean
