“ Momma Patty was always sweet, stylish and kind. She cared deeply for her family and serving others.

Although saddened about her absence on this side of eternity, I am looking forward to our reunion when we gather with the Lord.

Love you Momma Pattyyyyyy

“ Patricia was my supervisor at Solomon's Temple where she touched the lives of so many women by giving them the Word of God. She could make the simplest gift look so beautiful with her stylish wrapping and creative bows. She was my flower girl, when i received flowers, she would come in my office, remove them from my desk, fix them up in a vase a carefully put them on her desk, she loved them more than I did, it was an inside joke for the both of us. So happy, I could share her flowers with her while she was still on this earth. She made the best salmon salad and shared her recipe. I don't do it as good as she does but I'm good, thanks Patricia. She was the most stylish G-Ma I've ever seen and spoke about her sons, grandsons and her daughter in love with such passion and love. May they continue to feel her presence and love as they continue this journey without her and may she rest in heaven in peace.

“ Patricia was such a sweet and encouraging friend, with an incredible smile. I've had the honor of knowing her for over 30 years. I am so grateful that I was able to tell her I love her two weeks ago. She will be missed. I am comforted in knowing she's rejoicing in the presence of God.

“ She was an amazing young lady. She was gorgeous, precious, sweet and unique. While reminiscing, I recall a time and moment when Ann and Novia drove to Milledgeville, GA. (1980s) to visit me. Ann cooked the ORIGINAL (homemade) hamburger helper called gou-laush. It was definitely not on the shelf in any grocery store. It was delicious and I began to make it as a regular dish for my children. After she finished prepping and cooking, the three of us traveled to Savannah to see Shambock. I always cherished that time with her.
