“ My colleague and friend at Rockdale County schools. Patricia and I saw each other daily while driving, she always smiled and waved and had a kind word to say. Very professional and certainly a team player. She even ushered my family into church one Sunday. My prayers are with the family, may you continue to carry on her exceptional servanthood calling.

“ This has been a hard pill to swallow, it gives me heartburn everytime I think of this beautiful soul that has moved to a new location. My scorpio sis, colleague, client, venting partner, buddy and friend. I could give you many titles but this move still remain a heartburn.

I will forever miss the friendship, but I will cherish it forever. You reminds me of how people should always carry themselves. Rest Peacefully Sister/Friend.

Pat, I looked for you to stand next to me at church this past Sunday like you always did but you were not there. For a moment I glanced at the spot where you had stood so many Sundays before looking to see if you had left a footprint on the carpet but there was nothing. I then realized that the footprint you left was not on the carpet but was on my heart. Your kindness, your smile, your willingness to give of yourself will always remain in my heart. Rest in peace Sista!
