Aunt Pat I will miss you. It's been a while since I seen or spoken with you. I have memories of you and Uncle Mitchell when you lives in Newark how I would come visit as a child. The laughs the good times. This is hard for me to write I go through Grandma's old photo album, and to know another one has left is definitely a hard one to deal with. I Love You Aunt Pat and will Miss You. Rest Easy Now the pain and suffering are over. Enjoy eternal life.

“ My sincere condolences and are extended to Lisa and her entire family. I only knew Ms. Pat for a few months, but her impact was tremendous. Her love of God, family & the Lakers stood out the most. She was thoughtful and caring & took me in right away. I'll always remember how we would laugh and even sing her favorite gospel songs. Thank you Lisa for sharing your mom with me. Ms. Pat is forever in my heart. May God protect and bless you.

“ To The Family.. We love you and we continue to pray for you and with you. Keep loviving one another and keep the teaching cousin Patsy planted with you over the years. We knew her as an awesome older cousin that shared love and wisdom always. I always would teased her as being names after her grandmother. She would say that added to her wisdom. Keep the faith and we believe your beloved Patsy is now singing in the heavenly choir. We Are Family. Hebrews 11:1 Hebrews 13:1. Million

“ Our Beloved Patsy,
God has made some wonderful things.....like the birds & bees and butterfly wings, springtime showers and flowers too, and Special People just like 'YOU', who has touched the hearts of so many, especially ours.

We have spent some special times together, and have so many fond memories that will never be forgotten. We always enjoyed each other's company with plenty of laughter and fun, and especially sharing meals which was such a pleasure.

We were always there for each other doing both good and bad times.

Needless to say, that we will surely miss our cousin and "Very Special Friend".

This is not goodbye, just so long. We will see you again.

For Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

May you Rest in Peace

We love You

“ My sweet friend Lisa, I would like to send my sincere condolences to you and your family for the passing of your mom. No amount of words that I can say seem adequate to convey how much I loved Patsy, your mom. She had such a sweet loving spirit. She was was a mother in every since of that word. I called her my second mother. Each time we spoke she reminded me of my own mother. I know that God was a major part of her life because she displayed the attributes of the fruits of his spirit. Now God has called her home and we all will miss her. Please know that your pain is felt my all who knew and loved her. I believe God knew her best and called his daughter home. There is no better place to be but with our Heavenly Father who knew her by name ... “Patsy”. Rest In Peace now in his loving arms. We will miss you but never will forget you. Hang in there Lisa, this too will pass.

“ Mom Pat was such a beautiful woman. She loved me just as much as she did her own children. The last time we spoke we spoke for 6hrs straight just laughing and talking and just to hear her voice and hear her laugh made me feel so good. The love and joy that she had she gave to everyone she met. Mom Pat I love you and I will miss you. Rest well with Dad. Love you Tomyka (Tika) and Jay.

“ I remember her always smiling and making me feel loved. Taking my girls when they were small over her house for babysitting , along with Lisa was always a joy just seeing her lovely smile. The conversations about baking and especially about the icing for the pineapple coconut cake♥I have been friends with Lisa for 44 years and Mrs. Patsy never changed. She will truly be missed.

Aunt Pat was everything you would want an Aunt to be. Christian, loving 😊, caring, passionate, patient and understanding. She was firm when needed with having to say nothing at times. She lived a full life during this chapter in life . My sprit can feel her resting and waiting. Fair well Aunt Pat, Rest on, help is on the way. The Family is grieving, but God allowed you to leave an everlasting example on how to live and love ❤️ in this land of the living. We praise our reigning Savior for your earthly presence.
