“ I extend my sympathies to the family of Paul Brown. To lose someone in death is an experience we can never truly be prepared for. The loss leaves a void in our lives that can never be filled. I have found at times such as these that the words from our Heavenly Father can be a source of encouragement. He tells us at both Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29 that he intends to resurrect our loved ones. We will be give an opportunity to welcome them back. What a joyous occasion that will be. We will not be welcoming them back to an Earth filled with the problems and issues they faced in the past but as Revelation 21:3,4 says, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". What a wonderful future for our deceased loved ones to look forward to. I truly hope the words and promises from our Creator, Jehovah, will sustain you and give you the strength you need to get through this difficult period.

“ To the Family & Friends of Mr. Brown:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer Scriptural encouragement to you all. God made a loving provision to raise up dead ones when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up dead loved ones when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God always keeps his promises! (Isaiah 55:11, Revelation 21:3-5).
