

Elder Paul F. Grant

March 22, 1928 - January 10, 2019

On March 22, 1928 our heavenly father chose Lille & Reece Fears to be parents of Paul Fears (Uncle Pretty) Grant. They preceded him in death. He was the eighth child of this union. His siblings preceded him in death: James Thomas, Willie Fears, Ruth Fears Lewis, Mattie Fears, Stiggers, Levi (Pet) Fears, Ernest Fears and Mary Fears Short.

A Life Well Spent....

Paul attended and graduated from Heering High School in Decatur, GA. He met the love of his life, Christine Cooper and were united in holy matrimony September 20, 1947. During their seventy years of marriage seven children were born. Three of their children preceded him in death: Ernest Lee Cooper, Ruth Williams Thompson and Calvin Grant. His wife for seventy years preceded him in death September 26, 2017.

Paul worked for Colonial Stores from 1947 to 1972 as a stock clerk, assistant manager and manager until he retired. He served as manager at the following stores: Little Five Points, Memorial Drive and Bankhead to name a few! He accepted Christ while attending Rose of Sharon Church of God In Christ. He was baptized by Elder Rhodes, July 1959. Mother Rhodes and Elder Grant later established Temple of God, Inc. After her death he became the pastor. He was a faithful, anointed and caring pastor. His congregation was blessed to have a shepherd sent by God. There wasn't a time you couldn't call on him. In 1972 God called him to leave his job and become full time pastor. He served as the pastor for fifty years in Atlanta, Newnan, Winder #1 and Winder #2.

Sunset....

God called Elder Paul Grant home on Thursday, January 10, 2019. He gave him peace and took away the burden of missing the love of his life. He longs no more for her love. They are now absent from their earthly bodies and present with the Lord.
