

Paul Benjamin Henry

February 4, 1972 - November 22, 2024

Paul Benjamin Henry, 52, was born on February 4, 1972, in Georgetown, Guyana, the eighth child of ten, and the eldest of twins to Eunice and Roy Henry. On November 22, 2024, Paul was called home to be with the Lord. Known affectionately as “LaLa” to those who loved him, Paul was a bright light with a contagious sense of humor, boundless kindness, and a joyful, adventurous spirit. His love for cooking and dancing was matched only by his ability to make every gathering more memorable.

He was many things—funny, caring, and full of life—but what stood out most was his ability to make people laugh. Whether it was a well-timed joke or a silly impersonation, Paul always knew how to bring joy.

And again of course, he loved to dance. No matter where he was, if music was playing, Paul was moving—bringing energy and happiness to any room. Paul is survived by his parents Eunice Henry and Roy Henry, his nine siblings Aubrey (Camille) Henry, Reginald (Yvonne) Henry, LeRoy (Maria) Henry, Sidney (Claudette) Henry, David Henry, Denise (Patrick) Facey, Esther (Shelby) Smith, twin brother Peter (Kiola) Henry, George (Tracy) Henry; his nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.
