“ Our words of condolence cannot convey enough sympathy to acknowledge how deeply we share your bereavement. We want you to know that you and your family are still thought of in prayer this day. We pray that your connection to THE VINE will allow His peace and love to surround you and comfort you in this time of sorrow.

“ To the Smith Family:
We are so sorry to hear of Mr Paul's passing. He always made sure we were safe. As a female in the criminal justice field, I sincerely appreciated that he never questioned my skills, and was encouraging, supportive, and most of all, God fearing. We knew he had the outside perimeter & was confident those on duty, inside of the church, were watching.
Thanks Mr Paul for watching.
Thanks for having our six.
Your tasks are completed here Sir.
Rest well Sir. Rest well.
