Pauline Blasingame, 75, of Decatur, GA passed Thursday, May 7, 2020. Pauline Blasingame (Whitlock) was born March 12, 1945 in Atlanta, Georgia to Paul(Sr.) and Olga Whitlock. She was the youngest of 4 siblings, growing up surrounded by family and friends in Tucker, GA. She began studying the bible with Penny Maxwell in the mid 70's and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on February 27, 1977.

Pauline was a faithful and loving servant of Jehovah and was most proud of her time as a Pioneer, serving as a regular Pioneer since 1993. She had a love of travel, including her two most favored trips to Jehovah's Witness International Conventions in Bogota, Columbia and Paris, France. Pauline bravely endured and remained faithful and devoted to upholding Jehovah Gods Sovereignty to the very end. She now rests safely, awaiting the time when he through his Son, Jesus Christ calls her to life again, when he makes things new. It was her strong desire that everyone she loved and cared about be there to welcome her in the resurrection when she opens her eyes again in perfect health and peaceful conditions in God's promised new world.

Additionally, she was a devoted mother and grandmother, as well as a faithful friend. She offered each person their own special relationship with her as a friend, confidant, mentor and spiritual teacher of Jehovah's word. She was great at imitations and storytelling, which often resulted in lots of laughs. She was a wonderful mother, loving, kind and consistent. Her laughter and humor were infectious. She shared both often with her loved ones.

Pauline is survived by her four daughters, Malissa Thurman, Monica Parker(Darrell), Verena Johnson, Stacy Alexander. A son Richard Whitlock, preceded her; 5 Grandkids, Andre, Alex, Darren, Jhena, Alexia; Two sisters, Lily Mathis and Josephine Arnold, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and close friends.

Please express your condolences here on our website. Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, Avondale-Scottdale. 351 N. Clarendon Ave. Scottdale, GA 30079. (404)294-5500.
