“ My condolences to Ms. Pearlean Kimble,
Please allow God's word to calm and comfort your hearts. At (Isaiah 25:8) He promise to swallow up death forever and to wipe the tears from all faces.
may this scripture comfort this family during this time.

“ My Condolenses to my cousins, Aunt Dimples children. I am So Sorry for your devastating Loss. I know how hard this is for you, Cousins but just remember your Mother has Not left you. She's with you at all times. The love you have for her in your hearts proves that.

From the time I was a small child I always thought your Mother was as Beautiful and Sweet as an Angel. She was a very gentle & petite young woman. As a very young woman she was very talented, intelligent & especially wise for her age. I used to Love to hear her sing. Even when I was a little kid she always took time to talk to me & give me her 'Pearls' of wisdom. I will Never forget the valuable information she gave me when I was a teenager & I still apply it to my life, to this day. I wish I could have given her a kiss on the cheek & told her I loved her before she went on her final journey but she knew I loved her.

Cousins, take care of yourselves and each other. During this time of Deep Grief & Sorrow you'll need each other more now than ever before.

Rest in Eternal Peace Aunt Dimples. You've Earned it.

Love, Evette

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. Keep in mind... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. God is faithful!
