

Pecolia Dennis

June 28, 2017

Pecolia Dennis was the third child born to the late William and Ephalia Dennis in Atlanta Georgia on January 27, 1952. Pecolia was a bright and happy child, this playful attitude followed her well into adult hood. In 1970, she graduated from Harper Archer High School in Fulton County.

After graduating, Pecolia worked as a nurse for Grady Hospital and later in Hospitality for several restaurants. In 1978, she married Lovea White and the couple had two children. Pecolia was known for her sense of humor, her outgoing personality and her stylish appearance. She loved to sew and design clothing.

Pecolia loved the Lord. She was an Elder at her beloved church home the Cathedral of Love Church of God and Christ. Anyone who knew her, knew she loved to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. In 1999, she became an ordained minister. She volunteered in the nursing home ministry, street, phone and jail ministries. She embodied the scripture that says: "she opens her mouth with wisdom and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue".

Precious memories of Pecolia will always be with her sons: Leterry and Kenneth White; her brothers and sister: Richard (Joann) Dennis, Stanley Dennis, Lenora Moore and her brother and brother in law who proceed her in death: William "Junior" Dennis and Mack Moore; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and friends who were very dear to her.

Who can find a virtuous woman?

Her price is far above rubies

-Proverb 31:10
