

Persaphone Harris

November 20, 1971 - August 30, 2021

Persaphone Wynell Harris was born Saturday November 20, 1971, to Marion Simmons and Harold Barton Sr. She was raised in Miami Dade, Florida, where most of her lifelong friendships was created. She was known to be the life of the party as well as the problem solver. If you were in her presence, you knew that there wouldn't be a dull moment. Persaphone also enjoyed helping others, so she decided to pursue a career in the healthcare field.

Her role as a hero started when she attended Job Corps in Albany, Ga where she received her medical assistant certification. Persaphone furthered her education by attending Miami Dade college where she attained her associate degree in nursing, and later received her bachelor and master's degree.

Persaphone leaves behind Marion Simmons (mom). Ivonne & Sean-Paul Harrison (daughter and husband). Andrew Barton and Derrick & Artic Harris (sons).
