“ Major Pete, as I always knew him as, was such a dear person, mentor and leader during my time working with him at the DeKalb Sheriff's Office. I remember him as being fair, caring, tough and fun to be around. I remember being on a jail committee with him and laugh when I remember him repeating a curse word that an inmate used towards him and how his beautiful accent made the bad word sound so innocent.

As a mentor and a great leader, he will always be remembered as one of those people who helped define my career and that of so many others. Major Pete, I salute you sir and know you are in a great place now looking down on us all as we prepare our lives to one day join you.
