Every day, I long to talk to you, to hear your voice, to kiss you, and to feel your arms around me in a warm embrace. The void you have left in my life is immense, and there isn't a moment that goes by when I don't wish you were here with me. Our love story, so full of promise and joy, did not have the happy ending we envisioned, and the pain of your absence is a constant ache in my heart. As our wedding day approaches, I am filled with a mix of sorrow and gratitude. Sorrow for the life we won't get to live together and gratitude for the love we had. You brought so much joy into my life, and I am forever grateful for the time we spent together. Your love has left an indelible mark on my soul, one that I will carry with me always. I find solace in believing that you are watching over me and guiding me through these difficult days. Your spirit remains a part of me, and in that way, you are never truly gone. I wish I could turn back time, hold you once more, and tell you how much you mean to me. I hope you know how deeply you were loved and how much joy you brought into my life. My heart will always hold a special place for you, honey .

Until we meet again, my love. You are forever in my heart.

Yours always, Sterline
