“ Offering my deepest sympathy and heartfelt sorrow for the loss of our beloved Butch..my childhood thoughts are filled with memories of Butch going Up to the pharmacy to get licorice and caramels on Hillcrest Rd singing 'the biscuits in the army' being chased by tippy the dog at Jane st . The tremendous bond and closeness that was between us,,we were inseparable the years we lived together in Stratford all the cookouts at Aunt Mary's house Toni's house on Grandview aunt Gail's house good times at Connie's house.. games night at Susie's with Wendy and Janet...what a life we had..I love you continuously and endless forever. There's not enough space to write all the good times that we had together as a family. You affected so many people and left a special place in our hearts. Playing spades will never be the same. My heart is so heavy..My Love,Strength and Prayers are with you on your journey...❤️
Forever in my heart..your lil sis Tina

My name is Walker Langston I'm confused right now because I had a friend named Philip Alexander. I wish somebody would post a picture of him so I could see exactly who he is. The Fill of Alexander we grew up together. He used to live over off Rainbow around Glenwood Avenue I'm hoping it ain't him. Could somebody contact me at 770-990-9058 I just want to make sure if this is my friend Philip I could probably say a goodbye

One of the last times I really recognized Butch as a grown man and a gentleman indeed, was at Sueville's wedding reception, he said let's dance, and we had a great time, both saying hey, not half bad you,...I stayed in his trailer, and drank his lite beer... As an Alexander Man poised , strong and great sense of humor.. Tres Importante, for us all... Love lasts.. F.Kyle

“ It just amazes me how fast time flies by. One moment I hear I have a cousin and he is the love of the entire family. and , the only son of Phil and Marjorie Alexander . Butch You were always full of joy and I seem to remember you always running. Then the next moment you were a big strong grown man. I will always cherish the short time that I spent with you and Connie at her house when I came to visit and we sat and ate and laughed and joked and watch TV. It was so comforting. Rest in peace Cuz, and may the Lord shine his light upon you.

“ Butch, you cannot imagine the hurt I feel in missing my precious brother. One of the most precious gifts that God has blessed me with. Having you as a brother and friend for the time we were blessed with each other will never ever be forgotten. The clown at picnic and parties and most all my wedding. You had to leave for now and I know we will be together again. So for now memories and pictures will have to do until we see each other again. With all my LOVE BIG SIS TONI
