“ Phillip was in my 5th grade class at Laurel Creek Elementary School during my first year of teaching. I have vivid memories of a bright young student full of life and just the right amount of mischief. We reconnected much later, and his kindness and generous spirit shone through. Rest In Peace, dear Phillip.

“ I knew Phil when we worked together at the Rifle Range at Camp Le Jeune. He was always the joker, making everybody laugh. He was a kind soul and he will be forever in my heart.
