“ I met Mrs. Forde in 1976 and that day we became close. After the birth of my daughter Sonia we became even closer. I would speak to Mrs. Forde at least twice a week if I did not call her she would call me. Mrs. Forde two daughters Sandra and Angela now deceased took care of my daughter very much of witch I was very appreciative. I spoke to Mrs. Forde the day before Thanksgiving and she was looking forward to spending Thanksgiving with her granddaughter Stephanie. I did not speak to her over the weekend and when I called on Monday to hear how she had spent her Thanksgiving , I was shocked to hear that she had passed an hour earlier. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Phyllis. I first met her back in the eighties when my wife was in the hospital, Phyllis often visited her and boosted her spirits. She would always say to us that she feels a connection with us as if we were her own children. One day Phyllis came over to visit with my mom and as we walk into the room she said”Merlene these two people look familiar” and my mom said that’s my son and his wife, it was at that moment we both remember where we met. She told my mom how she took to us as if we were her own children not even knowing that we were related to her best friend. From that time until when my mom passed whenever they spoke she would always ask my mom how is her boy and quite often when she is speaking to my mom I often have conversations with her, she always wish me well and ends by saying take care of yourself and look after your mom. After the passing of my mom both my wife and I continue to call her every week and last spoke to her on Thanksgiving Day. Now they both are no longer with us, to be honest it’s like losing my mom all over again and I have such an empty feeling inside but most of all, lots of wonderful memories to reflect on. May she rest in eternal peace. What a wonderful wonderful person no doubt she will be missed but never forgotten. RIP Ms Phyllis. ❤️🙏

“ Ms Phyllis as I called her, was like a second mum. We talked ever Tuesday and Thursday with Thanksgiving being the last time we spoke. During our talks, she often asked about my sisters, my brother and his wife, my nephew and my husband “her lover boy “ as she called him. Her longtime friendship with my parents extended to us and we stay connected even as my parents passing. She always said she lost two daughters but Merline left her three. She was looking forward to spending thanksgiving with her grand daughter so we spoke early that day...giving her a chance to speak with my sisters. I appreciated the precious memories and moments we shared over the years. You will be missed but not forgotten. Love always..Darlene and Gregory Hudson

“ I was so heartbroken when I heard of Phyllis' passing. My siblings and I had spoken to her to Thanksgiving Day and she was so bubbly, so it was quite a shock to hear of her passing. Phyllis and my Mum have been friends for years. They would have their daily talks, with my mother giving her advice on any and everything. I know they are now together again, laughing and talking about old times. I will miss hearing her laughter. When Mum was still alive and I would visit her and she was talking to Phyllis she would always say, "is that my girl, how is she doing? So Phyllis as you soar among the angels with Mum, may your soul rest in eternal peace. You are forever in my heart.

My deepest condolences to her family and may God comfort you all during this difficult time.
