“ My dear friend for over 40 years will never be forgotten. She "Pheather" was my flighty friend who was always on the go in town one day and out of town the next. I never knew when I would see her but she would always just pop up and we would spend many days together doing all sorts of innovative and fun things. She would come across my mind and soon she would appear. We met in an unconventional way and became my oldest son's first babysitter. Im so glad she was a part of my life and may her spirt soar like a feather all the way into the arms of the Lord. My Forever Friend
